

Is Home Dialysis Best for Me?

If you answer “no” to one of the questions below, home dialysis might be best for you.

Share the responses with your care team to discuss how home dialysis may help you meet these goals.

Can you still participate in your favorite activities? If no, why not? What were they? Examples: lunch with friends, hiking, working, etc.

Can you fit dialysis into your work, family, volunteer, spiritual activities or school needs? If no, why not?

Can you still travel the way you want to? If no, where and how frequently were you going?

Do you feel you are involved in your care? If no, how involved would you like to be?

Home dialysis patients doing what they love and enjoying their treatments wherever they call home.
